

PETER GOES TO CORNELIUS

20th January 2019

1. Before Peter could go to Cornelius, God had to go to Peter (Acts 10:1-16). Why?
2. Where might there be prejudice in the Church today when it comes to salvation?
3. What kind of man was Cornelius? Why does he feel outside the people of the God that he was coming to worship and respect?
4. Just what is Luke saying to his Roman audience?
5. Why is baptism so important in this account?
6. N T Wright says, “The time had therefore come when all alike, Gentile as well as Jew, could be welcomed into God’s family on exactly the same terms. That, incidentally, is near the heart of what Paul means when he talks about ‘justification by faith’. “ Discuss.
